Cabaret: Rendezvous with Jack Black. Solo program by Mario Kuttinig

Description

Are you all set for the afterlife? With this question, this black comedy by and with Mario Kuttinig begins a gallows-humorous round dance around all the questions that you may have asked yourself in many a quiet hour. But why should you spend an evening exposing yourself to this topic, which is often relegated to the deepest depths? Because it's fun and because the answers to the secret questions are absolutely hilarious, no, of course not ... but they certainly make you laugh from the bottom of your heart.
