Managed Alpe Nenzigast with its own cheese production

Detailed description

Managed Alpe Nenzigast

The Alpe Nenzigast is an idyllic place where cheese is produced directly on site. Here you can enjoy fresh, handmade cheese made with love and tradition.

The hike to the Alpe is also worthwhile for families and especially on hot summer days. Past the picturesque waterfall, towards Schwendehütte, next to the rushing Nenzigastbach stream through the Nenzigasttal valley to Alpe Nenzigast. The cozy snack station with its own products. Enjoy a delicious snack in the wonderful mountain panorama. You can also buy alpine products at the alpine dairy.

You can also reach the alpine pasture with a baby carriage. This route leads via Langen am Arlberg.

The MTB route also leads via Langen am Arlberg.

The Alpe is conveniently reached by bus every week, so that you can experience the delicious products and the beautiful surroundings in a relaxed manner.

Only cash payment possible.
